

892.

ARCHAEOLOGICAL INVESTIGATIONS OF THE BIG TUJUNGA SITE

(LAn-167)

Jay Ruby

ANNUAL REPORT

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEY

DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES, 1966

VOL. 8

pp. 91-150

Bone Pendants

Description: This fragmentary pendant has a stringing hole which has been drilled biconically.

Number: 1

Material: Unidentified bone

Size: Length: ?

Width: 0.7 cm

Thickness: 0.2 cm

Diameter of hole: 0.3 cm

Beads

Stone Bead

Description: This bead has a hole which has been drilled from one side.

Number: 1

Material: Shale

Size: Exterior Diameter: 0.9 cm

Interior Diameter: 0.3 cm

Thickness: 0.3 cm

Bone Bead

Description: A small fragment of rodent (?) bone that displays polishing and a cut and smoothed end. It could have been a bead or tube.

Number: 1

Material: Rodent bone (?)

Size: Too fragmentary to measure

Glass Bead

Description: A black glass trade bead from the Spanish Mission Period.

Number: 1

Material: Glass

Size: Exterior Diameter: 0.77 cm

Interior Diameter: 0.29 cm

Thickness: 0.54 cm

Shell Beads

Description: Spire-lopped (Gifford's Types F5b, 1947)

Number: 1

Material: Olivella biplicata shell

Size: Length: 1.3 cm

Diameter: 0.8 cm

Description: Oval disc with one central perforation (Gifford's Type V1a, 1947)

Number: 3 (2 fragmentary)

Material: Unidentifiable shell

Size: Exterior Diameter: 1.3 cm